

Participate in the experience of a lifetime with...

EXPERIENCE INTERNATIONAL

PLACEMENT OPENING

Horticultural Research Organization, Washington

Duration:

Up to 12 months

Wage:

$11.50 per hour

Housing:

Provided for $400/month

Cost:

$2055 - $2945 (includes program fee, health/travel insurance and courier fees)

Description:

This organization conducts research to support the deciduous tree fruit industry of Washington State. The main research focus is on crop load management, heat stress protection, rootstock evaluation, irrigation strategies, food safety, management of physiological disorders and field testing of new agricultural technologies. Exchange Visitors conduct experimental tests and trials including the collection and recording of data and fruit samples; perform fruit quality analysis; prepare reagents, solutions, cultures; and operate a variety of technical equipment and instruments.

