Additional Information on Working Abroad in Australia

with our partner organization: IRE Agriculture Worldwide

Placements Include:

- Large- and small-scale field crops, dairy, beef, sheep, horticulture, ag mechanics, apiary
- Dairy placements available year-round, for 6-12 months
- Cropping: March-May or September-December. A 7-month placement for cropping is perfect so that trainees can do both seeding and cropping and have a holiday between!
- Horticulture is best for 10-12 months

Wage

- Wages are at least AUD $23.46 per hour (~$15), and overtime is paid after a 38-hour week
- You earn approx. AUD $692 (~$470) per week after tax and accommodation

Program Fees

- IRE Inbound Fee: AUD $1250 (~$840)
- Experience International Fee: $750
- Australia Visa Fee: AUD $660(~$445)
- Medical Health Insurance: starting at AUD $864 for 12 months (~$590)

Accommodation

- All hosts provide housing and may deduct rent costs
- Most trainees need to supply their own meals, although there is usually some help during busy periods in a cropping placement (e.g. seeding/harvest)

Requirements

- At least one year hands-on agriculture experience or current student in agricultural school
- Experience with machinery and in the field for which you are applying
- Family farm background OR formal agricultural education

Process

- Experience International will help you complete the IRE application!
- Once the application with all supporting documents is received, it takes approximately 4-10 weeks to get a placement and visa.
